

THE Little Book Of Cruelty Free 2011

The Leaping Bunny

It seems that there is an 'animal-friendly' statement on every cosmetic and household product available, not to mention the different bunny logos out there. It's utterly confusing and can have no real meaning. The Leaping Bunny represents the only internationally-recognised certification for cosmetic, toiletry and household product brands which are genuinely against animal testing. The entire supply-chain is audited for compliance with our standards.

Why Shop Cruelty Free?

Consumers have the power to make positive change...

By shopping cruelty free, you can help end the suffering of thousands of animals.

Cruelty-free shopping is getting easier all the time with more and more companies committing to the Leaping Bunny programme. For a regularly updated list of certified brands visit www.gocrueltyfree.org

About This Book

The Little Book of Cruelty Free is produced by the BUAV to help you identify certified products. We approve each company's entire range of own-branded products so even if you do not see the Leaping Bunny on pack, you can be confident that their products are cruelty free.
